when our children love Jesus more than we do

By Fr Keven McKenzieLC

As a priest you are welcomed into the homes of so many families, and each has incredible stories, the kind that never make it to the nightly news.

One dad told me of how his family had just moved from the city to the country. Instead of small city blocks, there were huge mile by-mile country blocks. Shortly after they had settled in, one of his daughters, a fourteen-year-old, asked her father if she could go for a bike ride “around the block”. He said that after she had been gone 30 minutes he got a bit worried, but figured it was a long distance to travel.

Time Away with God

By Rachel Peach

Right before Christmas, the consecrated in my community and I, along with the Dallas community and individuals from DC, Chicago, and Michigan, had the gift of spending 8 days on retreat. It was my first spiritual experience in Dickinson, TX, and with an apostolate team community.

Getting to the mystery

By Fr Michael Sliney LC

"For a stalk to grow or a flower to open there must be time that cannot be forced; nine months must go by for the birth of a human child; to write a book or compose music often years must be dedicated to patient research. To find the mystery there must be patience, interior purification, silence, waiting." ~St. Pope John Paul II
