Sorry Saint Anthony!

By Fr Kevin McKenzie LC

I lost my wallet a few months ago. It was hard remembering where, but I assumed it was at a park where I was playing disc golf with some of my fellow priests. I waited a week hoping someone would find it and return it, but nothing happened. So I drove an hour to the park, hunted for it, and came back empty handed. Then I called the park service and asked them to keep an eye out for it.

On the Lenten Journey

By Br Daniel Rolczynski LC

We are in the third week of Lent. It is entirely possible that you feel like me- worried that I have already lost some time and that Easter will be here before I know it and that Lent will have passed me by and I will have accomplished nothing.

Control

By Fr Simon Devereux LC

"Wanting complete control in your business is like building a prison; and you become the first inmate!" - Alessandri Peixoto

Last week we had the joy to receive the visit of three business people from Brazil. I called them the Magi since they travelled so far! They taught us that God is the best business planner. Since they started bringing their business decisions to prayer, their company (Syncro) has grown to provide employment for hundreds of people.

Today take an important decision to Our Lord. Open the bible and listen to His answer.

God's mercy

By Fr Michael Sliney LC

"Who can say that he is free from sin and does not need God's mercy? As people of this restless time of ours, wavering between the emptiness of self-exaltation and the humiliation of despair, have a greater need than ever for a regenerating experience of mercy." -- St. John Paul II

Confession is all about restoring and strengthening your friendship with Jesus Christ. He is anxiously waiting to forgive your sins through the priest, and pour his powerful grace into your hearts...with healing and peace as the result. Such a simple way for God to communicate his mercy and love. Do you take advantage of it?

Getting in touch with our “inner Pope Francis”

By Sara Sullivan

“Have you read any of the work of Dr. Conrad Baars?”

Says one of my dearest friends the other day at lunch. It was one of those conversations where the Holy Spirit had really been on the move. She had mentioned this strange name, pronounced “bars,” a year or so ago when we were chugging down the Georgia 400 in her van to attend a Regnum Christi women’s event. I had forgotten about Dr. Baars until she mentioned him again.
