Dear Friends in Christ,

You'll find more profiles of delegates to the upcoming Regnum Christi Convention in this issue. Reading these profiles makes me grateful – for the gift of the Movement and the remarkable people I get to join in our charism.

Yours in Christ,

Jim

Follow Regnum
Christi!

Fr. Eduardo Robles-Gil, L.C.

We are beginning Advent, a time that prepares us to celebrate the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. This year we joyfully celebrate as well the opening of the Holy Door on the feast day of the Immaculate Conception and the ordination of 44 Legionaries of Christ to the priesthood on December 12, the day dedicated to Our Lady of Guadalupe. I write to greet you, congratulate you on the occasion of these events and share with you two reflections so you can live this period with greater intensity.

Support vocations by supporting young men who are open to God's call

As He did in days of old, God still today calls some young men to consider the priesthood. When that happens today, how do they find encouragement and support? How can they let the voice of God resonate in their hearts and grow? It can be done through the environment which Sacred Heart provides – a joyful environment of education and prayer which gives them the opportunity to respond to God's invitation.

Meet the Renewal Delegates 9: Cindy Chauvin, Baton Rouge Louisiana

Regnum Christi is an amazing gift to our family! Guy, also in Regnum Christi, and I have been married for 26 years and are blessed with 5 children, 2 daughters-in-law, and 2 grandsons. Our children still reap blessings from K4J, Challenge, Conquest, and ECYD; and, our daughter Hannah is currently serving in DC as a Mission Corps volunteer. We have lived actively in our vibrant parish of St. John the Evangelist in Prairieville, Louisiana, for 23 years. Currently, I serve as section director in Baton Rouge Louisiana, and have previously served as team leader, facilitator in Familia, and director in K4J. I can't imagine our family life apart from Regnum Christi, nor would I desire to entertain this idea.

Meet the Renewal Delegates 10: Ramon Floro – Philippines

My name is Ramon D. Floro and I am a second degree, first level member of Regnum Christi. I belong to the Men's Section of the Makati team, Manila, Philippines. My wife Jean is also an RC member – second degree, first level. We both incorporated 7 years ago. We are blessed with two children, Cathy and Matthew.

Meet the Renewal Delegates 11 Connie VanDorpe: Ohio Valley 1

Hello! My name is Connie VanDorpe. My husband, Bruce, and I have seven children and we live in Dayton, Ohio. FAMILIA was my first exposure to women of the Movement and I was deeply touched by their charity and willingness to give of themselves to help others come to know Christ in a deeper way. As a result of their tremendous example, I was incorporated into the Regnum Christi Movement in Rome 2001.

Bless-the-Baby-Jesus

By Fr Kevin McKenzie LC

Yesterday was our Bless-the-Baby-Jesus mass for the preschool. At the end of mass, all the children came up to the front of the Church and got ready to bless their baby Jesus figurines individually. It was then that we heard a CRASH! – one little boy had dropped his porcelain baby Jesus on the floor! He immediately burst into tears and ran to his mom.

An open letter to goat cheese

By Victoria O'Donnell

It has been just over two months now that I have been here in Spain. There have been a whirlwind of emotions, adjustments and experiences. Even though it hasn't been easy, it has been very beautiful. God has been so good to me and so present. Getting acclimated to Europe is an adventure; new people, food, schedules, values, and infrastructures- most everything is different, helping me realize just how American I am.

Seeds of leadership

By Fr Simon Devereux LC

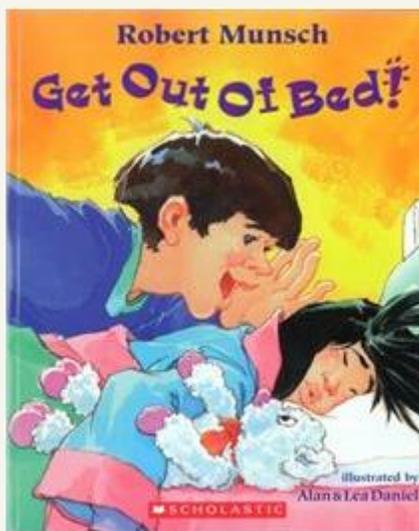

“A good leader is one who is capable of bringing up other leaders. If a leader wants to lead alone, he is a tyrant. True leadership is fruitful. Each one of you has the seed of leadership.”

Wherever You Go

By Br Dain Scherber LC

When I was a child, my mom always used to read me that story by Robert Munsch: “I’ll love you forever, I’ll like you for always, As long as I’m living my baby you’ll be.” (Robert Munsch, I’ll Love You Forever) I always thought that book was a pretty unfair weapon in the hands of a mother. My mom always intensified the effect by singing the refrain. For a son, there’s no resisting those tactics.

roots

By Fr Kevin McKenzie LC

A couple days ago I visited my great Aunt, my grandmother's sister. My grandmother passed away years ago, and I loved her dearly, so it was quite a treat for me to be able to see her little sister.

things change

By Br Andrew Gronotte LC

We are reminded, as we begin Advent, that we live in a world of change. Everything is changing around us and things just seem to happen too fast. In our search for securities we only find that all seems to move. But in the midst of this change, we have one security that won't ever leave us, God's love. Even when we fail Him, He remains there steady as the rock on which we can always lean on. The only thing we have control of in the midst of so much is to turn to Him so that we don't lose what is most important. The liturgy today reminds us to live these weeks before Christmas in this attitude. In this world of change, we have to hold more firmly onto Him. This Advent is a reminder for us.
