January 8, 2016

Dear Friends in Christ,

The internet really does connect Catholics around the world, as shown by the RC Meditations being recognized in Nigeria – an often dangerous place to practice our faith. It is wonderful that our work can offer some comfort! You might enjoy a visit to Young & Catholic Nigeria.

Below you can link to an inspiring video by Fr John Connor LC, something instruction from yours truly, and a book by Fr Michael Mitchell LC that might bring you to tears of joy.

I Saw His Face

See how Christ's Mercy is at work among those who serve and those who are being served in this inspiring collection of encounters with God's mercy in the new book by Fr Michael T. Mitchell LC. Fr Mitchell takes readers on missions to Haiti and Mexico where he experience firsthand Matthew 25:40, "Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of family, you did it to me."

Christmas Tradition of Service for Challenge Mundelein

The Challenge Girls' in Mundelein, IL have a special Christmas tradition that they have participated in for the past 5 years – Operation Christmas Child. Many of the Challenge members are now sophomores in high school, but remember back when they started doing this project in 5th grade. One year a local Christian radio station even featured the girls live on air while they were packing their shoeboxes with toys and goods for kids in need abroad.

His faithful love

By Carol Dodd

January 3, 2016 has become a historic date in my book.

During my hour of prayer that morning, the time flew by as I sat in front of Christ in the Eucharist and made a huge list of gratitude in my journal.

Thanks, Joseph

By Jim Fair

Joseph was an extraordinary ordinary Joe.

I've been thinking about him a lot the past couple weeks as 2015 was winding down and I have drifted into new stages in life. Like Joseph, I'm a husband and father, although serving a comparatively minor role in the story of the human race.

Making Conversation with a Three Year old

By Rachel Peach

Making conversation with a three year old can be a little interesting.

Especially when you're trying to walk them back to their classroom while distracting them from the fact they're separated from their parents.
